

Family Programs

Read with A Ranger (StoryTime)

Come in on Wednesdays at 10:00 am for story time with a Bear Creek Lake State Park Ranger. In Read with a Ranger your child will not only be developing essential reading skills but also there will be an opportunity to participate in a small craft and interact with other children. This program is open to parents and caregivers with their children ages 4-6.

Mother Goose On The Loose

A story time option for all children from birth to age 3 on Wednesdays at 11:00 am. Incorporating songs, nursery rhymes, lap-sit activities, movement and music, this program integrates the latest early literacy techniques into a library program you and your child will not want to miss!

Park Ranger Adventures

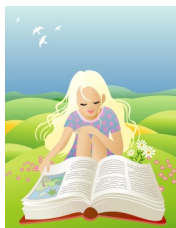

Offered in conjunction with Bear Creek Lake State Park, Park Ranger Adventures is a new program held on Thursdays from 3:30 to 4:30pm for children ages 6-9. The program features fun activities your children will love.

Summer Reading Program

For several weeks each summer, the program is held to encourage young people to read and have fun at the library.

Other Programs & Events

The Library & Friends sponsor other special programs and events, including visits from local authors, throughout the year. Be sure to check the library's website and watch for announcements in the newspaper and on our Facebook page for upcoming events.

Services

Computers: The library maintains free public access computers with basic office software and high speed Internet access. Printouts are $.20 per sheet. Patrons are welcome to bring their own storage media (jump-drives). Wifi is also available.

Copier: a copier for public use is located at the service desk. The charge is a $0.20 per page for black & white ($0.25 for duplex) and $0.50 per page for color.

Fax: Fax service is provided by the staff for a cost of $1.00 per page sent or received.

Lamination: Lamination is provided by request for $1.00 per foot, with a minimum fee of $1.00.

Reader for the Visually Impaired: located in the adult fiction section, this machine projects enlarged images of pages onto a screen for easy reading.

Large Print Books: The library now offers an extensive collection of books in Large Print. The collection has been expanded over the past few years and now offers many options for those who are slightly visually impaired.

Meeting Room: the library's meeting room is available for use by the public for civic and nonprofit groups. To reserve the meeting room, please contact the library at (804) 492-5807.

Public Bulletin Board: The library maintains a public bulletin board in the rear entry hall for the posting of notices for civic and nonprofit organizations and to assist small, local businesses. All notices must be approved by the library staff before posting.

Library Cards

Residents and nonresidents of Cumberland County ages six (6) and older are eligible to obtain a library card. Patrons may register for a card at the circulation desk. Adult patrons must show a photo ID and proof of residency before obtaining a card. Cardholders agree to observe all library policies. Parental permission is required for minors to obtain a card.

Lending Policies

Library materials may be renewed over the phone, in person or online, as long as they have not been placed on reserve by another patron. Patrons ages 18 and older may check out DVDs. There is a limit of three (3) DVDs per patron at any one time.

DVDs check out for 7 days.

All other library materials check out for 3 weeks, though exceptions may be made at the Library Director's discretion.

Overdue Fines

Books and audiobooks: $0.20 per day per item.

DVDs: $2.00 per day per item.

The maximum fine PER ITEM is $10.00. Patrons with fines may not check out material until the fine is paid.

New Card Holders

New patrons are limited to checking out no more than a total of three items, to include no more than one DVD, for their first six (6) weeks as a cardholder. After six weeks, and with their card in good standing (no overdue items or unpaid fines), patrons will gain full borrowing privileges.

Privacy

Your patron record is treated as confidential by the library staff, and will not be disclosed to others. However, parents or legal guardians of minors will be notified of the titles and cost of their dependent child's overdue material.

Resources

Books

Stop in and pick up a current bestseller, a mystery, western, romance, or a book on any subject of personal interest. The library's collection includes a wide variety of fiction and nonfiction titles for adults, young adults, juveniles, and children. Our reference section includes dictionaries, encyclopedias, and much more. Of special interest is the genealogy collection made up of local history and family stories in books and in a vertical file.

Audiobooks

We have a varied selection of books on CD so you may enjoy listening to books wherever you go.

DVDs

The DVD collection contains both fiction and non-fiction selections as well as many videos specially designed for children.

E-Resources on our Website

Universal Class

Your library card will now allow you to take more than 500 courses for continuing education credit for free! Available 24/7 and at your own pace, the classes cover a wide variety of topics and interests.

Rocket Languages

Your card will also allow you to learn a new language, including Spanish, French and ASL. You can register through our website.

Databases

We offer databases for researching biographies, family histories, legal information, and test and career preparation. Check out what we have to offer!

Volunteer at YOUR Library

The library could not operate without the service of many fine volunteers. If you are interested in volunteering at the library, please stop by and sign up or call (804) 492-5807 for more information. Volunteers are needed for shelving books, checking materials in & out, and a variety of other duties. Whatever time you have to donate, whatever your skills, we're almost certain to have a place for you!

Friends of the Cumberland County Public Library

The Friends is a tax exempt, not-for-profit organization made up of friends and neighbors who have joined together to support and promote the library as a vital resource in the county.
